Comm. vote

What does it mean to have a "pro-family" vote record? It means that a Representative voted for Connecticut families first. While many legislators claim to speak for Connecticut families, Family Institute of Connecticut Action has tracked their actual votes on our most important recent legislation. Are you happy or unhappy with how your Representative voted? Please contact them, they do WANT to hear from all of their constituents on matters that are important to them. As always, be kind and respectful. We are grateful for everyone's service!
